

ABOUT DAN RASOR -

- Dan Rasor is a “well-seasoned” sales manager with 33 years in the supply chain, 27 years supplying materials and innovative solutions to utilities, telecom companies, electrical contractors and marine contractors.
- LOL – I spent 2 years working for Biewer and the Pine River Group selling primarily fence posts, decking and dock planking and timber piles – It was kind of like a vacation, though I was also selling mats and poles too.
- He also spent 6 years on active duty in the Air Force and 15 years in the Army National Guard, retiring in 2008 after serving a year in Iraq.
- Solution minded and customer service oriented making the job of project managers easy.
- Dan doesn’t understand “NO” and believes there is a solution for everything.....
- Project managers know they can rely on Dan and that material will arrive as planned so they can focus on other tasks.
- Married (Sarah) 5 years, son Derrick (21) and Daughter Addison (15).
- Enjoys everything military, playing golf (though I’ve gotten worse over the years), playing cards, hanging with his dogs, kids and nieces and nephews.
