Snavelly, founded in 1902, operates distribution facilities in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Westminster, Maryland, Greensboro, North Carolina, Dallas, Texas, and Denver, Colorado. Weekes, founded in 1978, currently has distribution centers in St. Paul, Minnesota; Fargo, North Dakota; Green Bay and Jackson, Wisconsin; Riverdale, Illinois; Comstock Park, Michigan; and Tampa Florida and well as a trading office in St. Paul, MN.

“We are thrilled to add a premier company like Snavelly Forest Products to our two-step distribution family of companies. It’s rare to find a company such as Snavelly Forest Products that has developed a culture of honesty, trust and reliability over more than 100 years of service to their customers and suppliers. There are so many synergies to explore between our two companies,” Le Vere commented. “The footprint of the Snavelly distribution centers is a perfect extension to our own with zero overlap. Combined, Snavelly and Weekes will service 17 states with lumber and building materials.” Weekes intends to maintain the Snavelly name and quality image going forward. Steve Snavelly, CEO of Snavelly Forest Products added “we are very excited to be part of Weekes Forest Products.
